

Foundations of Practice

Community Development Core Competencies for Extension Professionals in the North Central Region

Welcome to Session 1 of Understanding Communities and their Dynamics. We will begin promptly at 10:00 a.m.

Overview

SLIDE

2

The North Central CRD program leaders recognized the increasing need for Extension professionals to have basic knowledge and skills in the processes, tools and techniques of community development work. In 2003, they undertook action to develop a multi-state effort to meet these needs.

Foundations
of Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Overview

SLIDE

3

Working in collaboration with the other Regional Rural Development Centers and CSREES-USDA, a conceptual framework was developed, and a white paper was written and presented at the NACDEP conference in February 2004. This conceptual framework is titled The Foundations of Practice.

Foundations
of Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCRD

Components of The Foundations of Practice

SLIDE

4

1. Understanding Communities and Their Dynamics (Offered through distance education in March and September 2006.)
2. Developing Successful Community Initiatives (Train-the-trainers workshop, Nov. 1-3, 2006.)
3. Areas of Specialization and Emphasis (Offered through various regional workshops; interest groups; Asset Inventory.)

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Component 1

SLIDE

5

Understanding Community and their Dynamics is a series of seven core competencies that focus on the ability to understand:

- Community of place.
- The nature of public issues.
- The dynamics and interdependencies of the various segments of the community.
- The basics of community development work.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Session 1

Steve Jeanetta

SLIDE

6

Introduction to the Series and Basic Understanding of Community

The ability to more fully understand the complexity and dynamics of issues and situations in a community context is important to be able to develop effective programs.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Session 2

Andy Lewis

SLIDE

7

Community Demographics

The ability to understand demographic profile and trends in a community is essential to identifying issues and sustainable alternatives.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Session 3

SLIDE

8

Community Economics

Bill Pinkovitz

The ability to understand the economic base of a community and the dynamics between the various economic sectors—including the ways in which money turns over in the community, leaves the community, or is invested—are important to providing a vibrant economy.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Session 4

Janet Ayres

SLIDE

9

Community Power Structure

The ability to identify who the decision makers are in the community, the resources they affect, and the power structure is crucial in gaining access to a community, gaining trust and credibility, and being effective in educational programs.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Session 5

Mary Emery

SLIDE 10

Natural Resources and Sustainability

The ability to understand the impact of decisions on the quality of natural resources and the long-term sustainability of the environment is an important component of community development.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Session 6

SLIDE

11

Community Situational Analysis

Anne Heinze Silvis

The ability to analyze a particular issue or situation in a community from a historical, political, cultural and community context and determine Extension's role in the issue is an important competency of community development.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Session 7

Tim Borich

SLIDE 12

Community Development Process and Evaluation of the Series

The ability to know how to organize and mobilize resources for action, as well as possible barriers, is necessary in developing programs that are meaningful and effective.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Certificate of Completion

SLIDE 13

A Certificate of Completion will be given to those who successfully complete at least six of seven sessions.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Archives

SLIDE 14

To view a missed session, go to:

Information on archived sessions will be available in the future.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

